गांधीसागर बना प्रयोगशाला

पानी में बहाते रहे पैसा, हिसाब भी गायब

आओ बचाएं झील-तालाब

पत्रिका न्यूज़ नेटवर्क
rajasthanpatrika.com

भीलवाड़ा. गांधीसागर को निखारने के लिए नगर परिषद पैसा खर्च करती रही और गंदगी उसी गति से बढ़ती रही। घटिया निर्माण और कमीशनखोरी के कारण अब तक खर्च हुए करीब पांच करोड़ रुपए गंदे पानी में डूबकर रह गए। कहां तो नगर परिषद ने शहर के लोगों को सपना दिखाया था कि गांधीसागर को उदयपुर की फतहसागर झील की तर्ज पर विकसित किया जाएगा और कहां यह गंदा नाला बनकर मच्छर पैदा होने की फैक्ट्री बन गया है। आसपास के लोगों का कहना है कि 10 साल पहले यह ज्यादा साफ था। इस पर जितना पैसा खर्च करने का दावा किया जा रहा है, वह कहीं दिखाई नहीं दे रहा है।

01. टूट गया 67 लाख का नाला

शास्त्रीनगर की ओर से गांधीसागर में मिल रहे नाले से गंदा पानी बाहर भेजने के लिए वर्ष 2007-08 में 67.87 लाख रुपए में बड़ला चौराहे से तिलकनगर तक नाला बनाया गया। बारिश का साफ पानी लाने और गंदा पानी नाले से बाहर निकालने के लिए चैंबर बनाए गए। घटिया निर्माण सामग्री से नाला एक साल में ही टूट गया। चैंबर भी टूट गए। नाला टूट जाने से गंदा पानी फिर तालाब में जाने लगा। नगर परिषद ने इसके बाद कोई सुध नहीं ली।

02. 40 लाख की पुलिया

गांधीसागर के बीच में बने टापू पर जाने के लिए वर्ष 2005 में सड़क बनाई गई। टापू तक सड़क के दोनों ओर दीवारें, सड़क पुलिया बनाने पर 40.89 लाख रुपए खर्च हुए। पानी क्रॉसिंग के लिए दो पुलिया भी बनाई गई। घटिया निर्माण के कारण छह महीने में ही दोनों पुलिया टूट गई। लोगों का टापू पर आना-जाना शुरू ही नहीं हो पाया।

03. 52.57 लाख की रेलिंग

गांधीसागर के चारों ओर 52.57 लाख रुपए में लोहे की रेलिंग लगाई, ताकि कोई कचरा नहीं फेंके। चारदीवारी की खूबसूरती बढ़ाने के लिए धौलपुरी पत्थर लगाए गए। सुरक्षा व्यवस्था नहीं होने से लोग रेलिंग उखाड़कर ले गए। पत्थर धीरे उखड़ गए।

बीमार पत्नी से मिलने ससुराल आए युवक का शव पेड़ पर लटका मिला

शक्करगढ़. किशनगढ़ गांव में ससुराल आए युवक का शव शनिवार को पेड़ पर लटका मिला। थानाप्रभारी विनोदकुमार मीणा ने बताया कि धाकड़ खेड़ी (मांडलगढ़) निवासी सूरजमल मीणा (40) तीन दिन पूर्व बीमार पत्नी मांगी देवी से मिलने किशनगढ़ अपने ससुराल आया था। शनिवार सुबह उथरना रोड पर महिलाओं ने पेड़ पर साफी से लटका शव देखा। उनके शोर मचाने पर ग्रामीण दौड़कर इकट्ठे हो गए। मृतक की पहचान सूरजमल के रूप में की गई। सूचना शक्करगढ़ पुलिस वहां पहुंची। शव पर कहीं चोट के निशान नहीं मिले। मृतक के भाई नारायण ने बताया कि सूरजमल की मानसिक स्थिति ठीक नहीं थी।

ANATOMY OF VOTES IN THE 2019 ELECTION

The landslide victory of Narendra Modi-led BJP has actually obviated any need for further analysis. But a deeper look at the results throws up some interesting facts about the sweeping victory:

TOUGH CONTESTS AGNOSTIC TO PARTY OR REGION

Twenty-nine seats were won with a margin of less than 10,000 votes in the election, and 14 parties emerged victorious in these. This means that thin-slice victories were dispersed across parties, or, that no party benefitted too much or lost too much narrowly. The BJP won 10 seats in such a manner, while the Congress, five. But the Congress lost eight seats in this manner, with a margin of 1 per cent or less

Top narrow victors

Party	Seats
BJP	10
INC	5
TDP	3
Others	11

Top narrow losers

Uttar Pradesh	Machhlishahr	BJP	BSP	181
Lakshadweep	Lakshadweep	NCP	INC	823
West Bengal	Arambagh	TMC	BJP	1,142

BJP IS MASTER OF MASSIVE VICTORIES

In thumping victories, the BJP was unmatched. There were 17 seats in 542 contested seats where the victory margin was more than 5 lakh votes. The BJP won 15, while the DMK the remaining two. The Congress topped charts in losing seats massively, occupying 13 runner-up positions out of 17 in crushing defeats

BJP'S ARCH ENEMY

This is reflected if we look at how differently the two national parties performed when they fought against each other, and when they fought other regional forces. The BJP's average victory margin against a Congress opponent was 270,000 votes, while it was smaller, at 180,000 votes against a non-Congress opponent. Similarly, the Congress's average victory margin against non-BJP opponents was 130,000. But wherever it won against BJP head-on, its average victory margin plummeted to 95,000.

Mamata offers to quit as CM

TMC rejects the request which comes days after the party ceded ground to the BJP in the LS elections

ISHITA AYAN DUTT
Kolkata, 25 May

West Bengal Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee offered to resign on Saturday, days after the Bharatiya Janata Party's (BJP's) shocker in the Lok Sabha elections.

Addressing a press conference after the party's internal review meeting, Banerjee said, "I told my party it is very difficult to continue as chief minister, and offered to resign. But my party has not accepted it."

"I have resigned from many chairs. It is my party symbol that matters." Banerjee, who is also Trinamool Congress chief, said for the past six months, she had not been allowed to work. "It was like an Emergency situation. I was the chief minister but working under pressure from the Election Commission," she said.

On instances of violence in several places during the elections, she tried to put the blame on the Election Commission, saying the people were under the protection of the poll body.

Trinamool Congress leaders met on Saturday to discuss the results of the elections, where the party got a drubbing from the BJP. With 18 seats, the BJP was close to the TMC's tally of 22. In terms of vote share, the difference between the two parties was about three per cent.

Banerjee accused the BJP of polarising the people along religious lines. "I congratulate (Prime Minister) Narendra Modi for their win but I do not subscribe to this philosophy. I am a Hindu but I don't believe that Muslims should be sidelined," she said.

Political observers believed the BJP was successful in polarising the people of Bengal because of Banerjee's Muslim appeasement policies.

The twin strategies adopted by the BJP, according to Banerjee, were polarisation and distributing money. "There is no value for developmental work. Votes were cast on the basis of money distributed," she said. Banerjee said she would continue to speak against the BJP's policies, but added that she would maintain a constructive equation with the Central government.

Governor Tripathi appeals for peace

West Bengal Governor Keshari Nath Tripathi on Saturday appealed to the people to maintain peace "in accordance with the rich culture of the state". Not interested to topple MP govt, says ex-CM Shivraj

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
Bhopal, 25 May

BJP national vice-president Shivraj Singh Chouhan on Saturday said his party was not interested in bringing down the Kamal Nath government in Madhya Pradesh but cannot help if it falls on its own.

The BJP had won 28 out of 29 Lok Sabha seats in the state in the just-concluded general polls and there has been speculation about the longevity of the Congress-led government in the state which is in power due to the support of BSP, SP and Independent MLAs.

"The BJP doesn't believe in any kind of horse trading, but there are contradictions within the Congress. We are not interested in bringing down the (MP) government but BJP can't help if it falls on its own," Chouhan told reporters at a meet-the-press event here.

"After the ticket distribution, a BSP candidate joined the Congress. Possibly, Mayawati ji can take this seriously or something happens within (the Congress). I am telling you the truth, if we wanted, we would not have allowed (Congress) to form the government," he said.

During the Lok Sabha elections, the BSP's Guna candidate Lokendra Singh had opted out of the race and joined the Congress extending support to Jyotiraditya Scindia.

Later, in a tweet, BSP supremo Mayawati threatened to withdraw support to the Kamal Nath government.

In the 2018 Assembly polls, the Congress had emerged as the single-largest party with 114 seats, two short of the simple majority mark of 116 seats, in the 230-member Assembly.

The Congress then formed the government in the state with the support of two BSP, one SP and four Independent MLAs.

The BJP, in power since 2003, had got 109 seats.

Meanwhile, Prem Singh Chouhan (82), father of Shivraj Singh Chouhan, died in a Mumbai hospital on Saturday, a BJP spokesperson said.

Prem Singh Chouhan died in the afternoon at Mumbai's Lilavati Hospital, where he was admitted two days ago for an illness, he said.

The former MP CM rushed to Mumbai after hearing the news, he said, adding that the last rites would be conducted Sunday in their ancestral Jait village in the state's Sehore district.

MP Chief Minister Kamal Nath, former CM Kailash Joshi, BJP vice president Prabhat Jha, Congress general secretary Jyotiraditya Scindia among others expressed condolences.

Rural Bengal gave a thumbs down to Didi despite efforts for growth

NAMRATA ACHARYA
Kolkata, 25 May

Ever since coming to power, West Bengal chief minister Mamata Banerjee has been holding frequent administrative review meetings, which most government officials and district-level political leaders dread.

In roll call-like sessions, she often lashed out at top government officials and party workers over the progress of development works in full glare of the media.

The review meetings hold key to Mamata's style of administration, showing her strong connect with the rural masses.

Till November 2018, she had done 430 such meetings. In nearly eight years of the Trinamool Congress (TMC) regime in West Bengal, rural areas have been the focus of successive budgets by the state government. Yet, the party faced a major defeat in the countryside while it retained urban seats.

According to analysts, since much of the voting in this elections was on religious lines, Mamata's rural focus became irrelevant.

Departments that saw massive increase in fund flow in the last eight years in the state include agriculture, panchayats and rural development, minority development, health, school education, land reforms and refugee relief and rehabilitation, among others.

At the same time, in some of the job-creating sectors like commerce and industry and information technology, the relative increase in fund allocation has remained low.

Bengal's budget for agriculture stood at ₹315 crore in 2012-13 when state finance minister Amit Mitra presented the first Budget of the TMC government. By 2019-20, the allocation rose to nearly ₹6,086 crore.

About a month before the NDA government at the Centre announced a yearly dole of ₹6,000 to farmer, West Bengal announced ₹5,000 annually per acre to farmer, along with a life insurance scheme of ₹2 lakh. The scheme cover around 7,20,000 farmer in the state. In February this year, Mamata had announced that the state will bear full premium burden for Bangla Fasal Bima Yojna, the state's own version of Prime Minister Fasal Bima Yojna. Earlier, the state used to pay 80 per cent of the premium, with the rest being borne by the Centre.

Despite this, the TMC suffered a defeat in the agriculture-rich constituencies of Hooghly, and Bardhaman-Durgapur.

Minority development has been another area of major focus for the TMC government – something which the BJP in the state made a major political issue about, as it blamed the TMC for appeasement politics.

For minority development and Madarsa education, Bengal's budget increased from ₹570 crore in 2012-13 to about ₹4,017 crore in 2018-19. Some of the projects aimed at Muslims include construction of boundary wall at graveyards, involving a fund of ₹563 crore so far, construction of Haj House, with a project cost of ₹100 crore, setting up of a Minority Bhavan – a single window facility for the minorities for all government schemes – in each district of the state. The state has also set up Aliah University, a minority education institution, spread over 20 acres on a budget of ₹257 crore. However, the most politically contentious scheme of the TMC government remains that of providing financial assistance to Imams and Moazzins, about 63,378 in number.

The most successful welfare scheme of the TMC government has been the Kanyashree project, which also won several accolades, including one from the UN and replicated by other states. Under the scheme, the state provides a one-time grant of ₹25,000 once a girl reaches the age of 18 and continues her studies. The state also provides annual scholarship for unmarried girls aged 13-18 years enrolled in classes VIII-XII. Also, the government provides free school bags, books, uniform and bicycles to students between classes IX and XII. Little surprise, TMC's budget allocation for school education rose from ₹2,713 crore in 2012-13 to whooping ₹27,541 crore in 2019-20.

Upbeat by the success of Kanyashree, TMC later launched Rupashree, which doles out grants for the wedding of women.

Some of the other popular schemes of the state government include Yuvashree (financial assistance for the unemployed), and financial assistance to folk artists.

In the area of food security, Bengal has been a top performer, as the government provides 5 kg of rice/wheat per month at the rate of ₹2 a kg to the poor.
